Russells Point Christmas Party

On Wednesday, the 15th, we had the Russells Point Christmas Party at the Galilee Lutheran Church. On Saturday, the 18th we had the Chippewa Christmas Party at the Nazarene Church. Over kids and their parents attended the events and enjoyed subs, pizza, cookies, brownies, cupcakes and drinks before being visited by Santa. The kids came up to sit on his lap and receive their gifts. Thank you to everyone who donated money and gifts for the party, as well as those who volunteered to help everything run smoothly. Thank you to Subway and Padrones for donating subs and pizzas!

Spend-A-Day Marina
